The Veterans' Preference Law in the Supreme Court Today.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION- ERS MAY HAVE TO UNDO THEIR WORK.

U. S. Senate to be Republican.

THAT IS CHANDLER'S OPINION

VETERAN'S PREFERENCE BILL.

Its Constitutionality Being Tried in the Supreme Court Today.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Few cases have come before the courts of Massachusetts in recent years of greater importance than that of F. W. Drown vs. C. T. Russell, Jr., et al., civil service commissioners, which case is up today before a full bench of the supreme judicial court. The decision to be rendered will involve the validity of the Veterans' Preference act of the last legislature.

The petitioner, Brown, asks for a writ of mandamus to compel the civil service commissioners to certify his name for appointment as a member of the state police. He avers that he passed the competitive examination with the highest marks of all the candidates, but the civil service commission acting in accordance with the Veterans' preference act of the last legislature, placed the name of one E. Bean ahead of Mr. Brown's name for appointment on the ground that Bean
was a veteran soldier.

The petitioner claims that the act of 1895 is unconstitutional and that he has the right to retain his original position at the head of the eligible list and asks the supreme court to restore him to his rights.

A REPUBLICAN SENATE.

Senator Chandler Says the Organization
Will Be Republican.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—Senator
Chandler is here and gives out as his opinion that the Republicans will organize the senate, probably making Frye, president pro tem. When asked about the Populist senators' votes, Mr. Chandler said that if they came to the Republican side they would come without any urging.
On this point the New Hampshire senator was emphatic.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

A Railroad Employee Loses a Foot Yesterday Afternoon.

A very serious accident befell T. Gagnon,
a freight handler for the Fitchburg railroad, yesterday afternoon. He was removing freight from a car on the freight house truck to a car on No. 1 track. The car from which he was removing the freight was in a train to which an engine was attached, and for some reason the train was started while Mr. Gagnon was moving some heavy article from one car to the other. His left foot was caught between the side of the car door and the bridge that extends from car to car and was badly crushed. Agent Wait called a hack and had the injured man removed to the hospital at once. Dr.
Mignault attended and found it necessary
to amputate the foot.

Mr. Gagnon is about 50 years old and has a family. He has worked in the freight house six or seven years and has been a very faithful and reliable employe.
His misfortune is deeply regretted by Agent Wait, his fellow employes in the freight house and all who know him.

Henry Kingsley of South Church street.
Mrs. Cole is eighty-nine years old and her recovery is doubtful.

A LIVELY GAME.

Football on the Fair Grounds
Drew a Crowd Yesterday.

DRURY BOYS BEAT ARMS ACADEMY

About 300 Spectators Present. Both Sides Did Their Best. One Boy Badly Hurt. Various Incidents of the Game. Local Interest Reviving.

About 300 people were assembled on the fair grounds yesterday afternoon to witness Drury's first game on the home grounds. It was a return game with the Arms academy team of Shelburne Falls
and was well contested to the finish.
Drury won the toss and took the west goal and Arms kicked off the ball for thirty yards. The ball was well returned and the game fairly commenced nearly in the center of the field. The Drury boys began the game which they play so successfully usually, that of bucking the center and guards. The scheme worked admirably. The Arms team assumed the defensive during the first half, but was unable to prevent the rushes and in fifteen minutes after play was called Watson was pushed over the Arms line for a touchdown. Schouler kicked a splendid goal.
Score 6-0 in favor of Drury. The ball remained near the center of the field during the remainder of the half and at no time was Drury's goal threatened.
Coughlin made the excellent stop of the half by not only checking the Arms runner, but by carrying him back, and did it by getting through their interference. Warren's right knee was injured near the close of the half, but he did not give up playing.

The second half opened up with the Arms team full of life and snap. They succeeded in getting through the Drury line for short gains,
but long enough not to lose the ball.
Both sides played hard in the second half. Coughlin was put out of the game for alleged striking. Things were lively for a few moments and the air was full of protestations, but the umpire said Coughlin must go and Will Orr was called to take his place. The game was thereupon continued and the players went in more fiercely than before, each side determined to win. J. Haigis, left half-back of Arms, took the ball for a left end play. Hadley tackled him strongly, throwing him to the ground. The players were upon the pair in a twinkling and in the jam Haigis was injured. He was severely hurt and his struggles were so desperate as to require the combined efforts of three men to hold him. He seemed to be hurt about the back of his head and neck, and no physician being on the grounds, he was taken to Dr. Stafford's office. Arms had no substitute to take his place and the game was called to a close within five minutes of the allotted time. The final score was Drury 6, Arms academy 0.

Dr. Stafford administered sedatives to the injured man and applied hot water bandages to his head, and in a few minutes he was quiet. He had received a severe blow on his head, causing concussion of the brain. The result of his accident is doubtful, complications being liable to arise from such injuries.

Officer Smith was on the grounds and kept the crowd from surging upon the field, as is customary in most games. The abrupt ending of the game was unsatis-fying, but it is not probable that the score would have been altered, as the time was short and the gains being slowly made. The make-up of the teams was as follows:

Positions. Arms Academy
Dennett right-half-back Shaw
Watson right-guard-left Monahan
Washburn center Wilcox
Bremant tackle-right Smith
Hadley end-right G. Haigis
Barrington quarter-back Russell
Howlands right-half-back (Capt.) Mann
Warren, (Capt.) left-half-back J. Haigis
Schouler full-back Carpenter
Umpire, Gassett of Shelburne Falls. Referee, Mummitt, Linemen, Crystal and O'Hara. Twenty-five minute halves. 6 score, Drury 6, Arms 0.

ENGLISH MRS. JARLEY.

Her Wax Works Pleased a Critical Audience Last Night.

"Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works," as exhibited by Miss Cobb of Portland, Me., last night in St. John's parish house was a very entertaining collection of historical, classical and miscellaneous characters. Miss Cobb in her quaint costumes was an interesting figure herself and her description of her wax creations was in most part pleasing absurdities. In some instances she was very satirical and made sharp
though indirect criticism on popular fads and customs.

Mrs. Jarley's figures were not wax figures though they acted very much like automatons. They were prominent young people dressed in appropriate costumes and supposedly wound up to give the automatic motion.

Those who impersonated and the characters assumed are as follows: Historical—
King Ferdinand, Frank Bartlett; Queen
Isabella, Agnes Whitney; Mary Queen of Scots, Alice Beatty; Charlotte Corday, Clara Henwood; Lady Jane Grey, Alice
Dyson; Christopher Columbus, John
Knott; Maeame Roland, Daisy Harrington;
Diogenes, Warren Keard; Lord Byron,
Horatio Browne; Maid of Athens,
Carrie Pratt; Princess Louise, Lizzie
Woodhouse; Marquis of Lorne, Thomas
Henderson. Miscellaneous—Osw boy,
Will Warren; Ophelia, Belle White;
Indian, Mr. Watson; Puritan maiden,
Isabel Cady; Nydia, Sadie Henwood;
Giggles, Clara Church; Old Darning Lady,
Bessie Hardman; Topsy, Emma White;
Prima Donna, Ethel Brownwood; Football player, F. M. Bartlett; Sweet Alice, Josie Cady; Ben Bolt, E. Bishop; Light Brigade Frank Illingworth. Classical—

TREATMENT OF LOCAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

For the purpose of keeping our readers informed in regard to local public utterances, so far as limited space will permit, and to extend their beneficial influence, we are adopting means by which we hope to give every Monday a brief synopsis of a sermon preached the Sunday before in each of our city churches of all denominations, Catholic, Protestant or Jewish. With the aid of the members of the clergy we hope to make this an interesting and valuable feature of the Daily TRANSCRIPT.

In doing this we attempt no suggestion and certainly do not assume even a shadow of dictation as to their treatment of our public local affairs; neither does the publication of them in any sense necessarily imply our endorsement of their opinions social, political or religious. It is a matter of newspaper work with us, and so far as our local pages are concerned we feel it is only justice to our readers and to the subjects there appearing that no coloring should be given them by our own prejudice or opinion, be they right or wrong.

We may know little or much about journalism or about what stands for the good of this community. We hope we know something of both; we aim to know more. We would not be dictators if we could of the way in which other channels for the expression of opinion shall be managed. But we have our ideas of the way we think our local affairs should be treated by the press, in columns where expressions of opinion, wise or otherwise, are commonly looked for and it may be that some of these ideas are in a measure applicable to a public spirited pulpist as well.

We feel that it is unwise and not for the best interests of our community as a whole or as individuals that we should go out of our way to express opinions hastily formed for the sake of creating useless discussion or stirring up unwarranted dissatisfaction with the existing condition of affairs, where no important principle or reform is involved or possible. The best interests of our city will not be promoted by unjust criticism of its officials indulged in simply for the sake of kicking some one or something. It is for us to remember that these officials are duly elected by our citizens after the most careful study and searching investigation, as a rule, and that unless unquestionable proof can be furnished to the contrary we must regard them as representing the spirit of the community which has honored them in accepting their services.

Our local pages this week have contained pulpist utterances that we cannot wholly endorse. We do not believe that this town has ever made either officially or as individuals undue efforts to avoid bearing its full share of the burdens of taxation. On the other hand it has always stood in the front rank of communities ready to bear its full quota of money and service for the public good as it did so patriotically in the dark days of national peril. The thought of such a thing as important class distinction here in this place which, if conspicuous for one thing more than another, as it certainly is, is happily conspicuous for the thoroughly democratic tastes and ideas of its people; such a thought here to us seems to border almost absurdly on the ridiculous. That justice is not influenced by fear or favor of class or individual in our courts it needs only that the striking and honored character of the chief administrator of justice here be borne in mind to most gratifyingly confirm.

If justice was ever tempered with mercy and a kindly impartial common sense anywhere it is in our own local court.

These ideas may seem mild, but they are of a mildness which we hope will enable us to strike, when it may be necessary to strike, with a force that means something. Meanwhile, brothers of the pulpit and of the press, it may not be amiss for us to remember in our necessary critical work that "to err is human—to forgive divine."

FOOTBALL AGAIN.

In a recent issue of the TRANSCRIPT we took occasion to point out the evils of football. We referred to its indefensible brutality and to the fact that besides those maimed and injured forty-six young men were killed while playing the game of football in this country last year. By reference to authorities it was further shown that the football player as a rule neglects his studies and takes a low position in his class besides incurring the evil effects of a cheap newspaper notoriety.

Yesterday the dangerous nature of the game of football was brought close home to the people of North Adams. A young man of a visiting school team while playing against the Drury boys, received injuries from which he will recover only after a period of suffering and pain and with possible life-long detriment to his health. One such painful incident as that which happened yesterday should be enough to teach this lesson to the parents and school authorities of North Adams. The boys of our public schools should not be allowed to form football teams that engage in the game exactly as do professional teams. The game of football played by professionals or even college men, with all its brutality, is more excusable because of physical reasons than the game allowed at Drury or any like school of young students. The professional and college teams are selected and trained by professional men and experts for the roughness of the game; they are properly drilled and kept in condition and are not allowed to overdo; their age and strict training put them in as fit condition for the grid-iron as is the pugilist for the ring. The case is different with school boys; they are at that tender age of physical development where life-long injury can most easily be received; they haven't the cure and physical direction of trainers deemed necessary to the safety of the health and bodies of other teams, and they are at an indiscreet age when excesses in their play are thoughtlessly allowed.

The argument need not be carried farther. The simple fact is, our school authorities here in North Adams should put a stop at once and for all to the school football that incurs all the dangers of professional football without its safeguards; and which carries the members of the team from town to town, taking time and interest and energy that especially belongs to school work at the formative age of our boys in the high school.

Will not our North Adams school authorities take action in this matter, and begin a reform needed in almost every high school in the country?

The Springfield Republican in commenting editorially on the shooting accidents in this vicinity which have occurred during the past few days very sensibly says: "There is enough to show that something more needs to be done than has been done to protect other people from the fool who doesn't know it is loaded of the fool who goes about trying to frighten his sisters and playmates by pointing a gun known to be loaded. If the sight of a sister or brother or playmate lying dead with a head shot to pieces is not enough to bring these fools to their senses, something that will tell on their own aversion to pain or their own love for life and liberty will have to be devised to meet the exigency. Parents meantime will do well to keep firearms away from their children and have punished with a severity that will be remembered with any known case of pointing weapons at others where they have come into possession of boys of years and supposed discretion."

But one spirit should prevail in the first city election—the starting of the city right with the best and most capable city officials that can be selected. Every good citizen will agree to this, and every one who has the interests of North Adams at heart will further agree that all together and all in harmony is North Adams' policy at this time.

AN AUTUMN SOLILOQUY.

Hush! Hush! for the winds are asleep, Peace broods o'er the mellowing noon, But summer is crushed in the dust; The pastures with thisledown strewn.

The hollows are burning to brown, The frosts and the ivy have wed; The sedge by the sea gray grows, The whirr of the swallow has fled.

The chirp of the cricket is sad, And dies on the air like a breath, For beauty is fading away, All loveliness smitten with death.

How solemn and plaintive the wood, No tender buds on the earth's breast, No passionate prayer wakes their sleep, As the pines murmur over their rest.

Peace broods o'er the mellowing noon, Hush! Hush! for the winds are asleep; Love lives! tho' the willows were white, God is, so is heaven, why weep?

PITTSFIELD Y.M.C.A. BUILDING

It is Proposed to Commence Building Early in the Spring.

Pittsfield is to have a Y. M. C. A. building which will be a credit to the city. The building, which will have many distinctive features will be 63 by 203 feet, four stories high in front and three in the rear, and will be built of buff brick. In the front will be three large stores and an entrance to the Young Men's Christian association gymnasium, and rooms in the rear. It will also have entrances on the south side on the driveway, which will be paved. The offices in front of the front section will be rented, but aside from this and the stores and a room in the rear, the whole building will be for Young Men's Christian association purposes. The gymnasium will be one of the best in this section. Below it will be a dozen bathrooms of various kinds, in addition to a large plunge bath tank, 20 by 30, and 300 lockers. There will be a large bowling alley and a bicycle room, while over the gymnasium, which opens clear to the roof, will be a running track on the third floor, from which one may look into the gymnasium below. The assembly room can be thrown open as a part of the gymnasium, making a room 60 by 60. The reading room will be over the rear part of the stores, while the parlor, 30 by 30, will be the next east. The third floor will have two large class rooms, a directors' room, and a room for the women's auxiliary.

It will be arranged so that the gymnasium will be open to ladies from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. to the public from 1 to 4, and later every day to members, free of charge. The building will have a different appearance from an ordinary business block.

All complete, the property will be worth $100,000, half of which will be in the cost of the building and gymnasium outfit. Half the money will be raised on first mortgage, $20,000 on second mortgage bonds, at 5 per cent and $10,000 in subscriptions, leaving the Young Men's Christian association an equity of $20,000 in the structure. Already $7,500 worth of the bonds have been spoken for, and $2500 of the needed subscriptions promised.

Work on the building will begin in the spring as soon as the weather will permit.

The annual meeting of Greylock Christian Endeavor union will be held in the Blackinton church Friday evening of this week at 7.30. Besides reports from the nine Christian Endeavor societies forming the union and election of officers, there will be an address by Rev. Mr. Tenney of North Adams.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

—Livestockman Flagg is getting his sleighs ready for the winter campaign.

—Anyone who wants a good supper can secure it at the Baptist church this evening from 5 to 7 for fifteen cents.

—At the meeting of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association held last evening four names were added to the membership list.

—An iron pipe has been laid across Union street at the foot of Miller street to carry off the water that collects there in a wet time.

—The annual inspection of the W. R. C. will be held this evening by Miss Luella Meekins, of Shelburne Falls. Refreshments will be served after the business meeting.

—A gas pipe is being laid from the Union street main to the new building of the Windsor company. The ground where the ditch was dug is exceedingly strong and several rocks had to be reduced by fire.

—The accounts and records of Lincoln camp, S. of V., were inspected yesterday afternoon by S. K. Smith of Becket. Last evening the members gathered in the rooms and had a social time. Coffee and Doughnuts constituted the refreshments.

—About forty people left town yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock on the excursion to New York via the Fitchburg railroad and Citizens' Line steamers. This is the last excursion of the season by boat, but an all rail excursion to New York will be run tomorrow, and that will probably close the excursion season.

—A church fair will be held at Waterman & Moore's opera house in Williamsstown from November 19 to 23 inclusive. The fair will be held under the auspices of St. Patrick's parish and promises to be a very successful event. It is probable that a good number from this town will attend.

—The two upper classes in the grammar school were allowed to attend the football game yesterday afternoon on condition that they make up lost time. They readily consented to do so and when liberated they poured down through Main street and away to the fair grounds with as much enthusiasm as if they had been going to a fire.

—Olympian lodge, No. 22, Knights of Pythias, will receive an official invitation tomorrow evening from officers of the grand lodge. The exemplification of the work of the lodge will be conducted by Grand Inspector F. R. Hayden and Grand Chancellor James H. Flynn of Worcester. Both officials will be accompanied by suites.

—The Ladies' Aid society of Notre Dame church will hold its annual supper and festival in Odd Fellows' hall Friday and Saturday evenings of next week. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock each evening and a musical program will follow. One-half the proceeds of the festival will be given to the hospital and half to the poor of the church.

—E. A. Stroud, who has conducted the general store near the Eclipse mill on Union street for twenty-two years, will be obliged to move out, as the owners of the enlarged mill desire the store for offices. Mr. Stroud began business in the store at the Beaver twenty-four years ago, and for over twenty years he conducted both the Beaver and the Union street store. He has been located in his present store so long that to move out of it will seem to him like leaving home. He has not yet decided upon his future course.

—The annual meeting of the Ladies Sewing society of the Congregational church was held in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. John Bracewell; vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Hamblen; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Cutting; assistant secretary and treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Hunter. The eight directors of last year were re-elected and eight other names were added, making sixteen directors in all. A social committee of eight was chosen. The work accomplished last year was very profitable and the debt assumed by the society has been materially decreased. The outlook for a successful year is very hopeful. The society does not resume its activity until after the holidays, when preparations for the annual Easter sale will be commenced in earnest.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

A. Beauchamp of Lincoln street is visiting friends in Pittsfield.

Mrs. E. B. Larkin of Keene, N. H., is visiting Miss Peck of 3 Arnold place.

Reports in Full.

All interested in the hospital and its work will be glad to know that the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, following its usual custom, will tomorrow present in full the reports rendered by the various officers and committees at the last annual meeting of the corporation, held November 2. This is done at considerable labor and expense, but the service is cheerfully rendered in behalf of our foremost benevolent institution and of those who year after so nobly and freely give of their time, strength and means to maintain and enlarge the usefulness of the public hospital.

FAULTS OF THE TEXAS

Appear to Be Much Greater Than Were Anticipated by Naval Men.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The battleship Texas has come to grief in the drydock at New York, and has sustained injuries, the extent of which are not known here at present. The ship went into the dock a week ago to be cleaned and painted and to remove an accumulation of seaweeds which had grown in the pipe gatings leading to the circulating pumps.

It appears from later reports that about 11 of the bottom frames and brackets of the Texas are now buckled from 1/4 to 1 1/2 inches, while the center lining of the double bottom is cracked in many places. Whether it will be necessary to undertake to repair these frames and remove the dents in the bottom cannot be told until a further examination is made, and to do this it may be necessary to remove all of the weights of the ship in order to draw off the 11 feet of water, otherwise the strain might again become excessive and irreparable injury follow.

Indian Education.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—W. N. Hallinan, superintendent of Indian schools, in his annual report, discusses the difficulties which Indian children, who have been at school, encounter when they return to the reservations and the sequelae of Indian life. He thinks efforts should be made to have agents establish these Indians in homes of their own, and exert every effort to prevent them from returning to their former mode of life. The general condition of Indian education has improved, and the Indians themselves have shown increasing interest in education.

Brooklyn's Police Muddle.

BROOKLYN, Mass., Nov. 13.—A petition from ex-Mayors Keith and Douglas and other prominent citizens created considerable excitement at last night's session of the board of aldermen. The petition asked that those aldermen serving on the police committee of this city be requested to withdraw from the aldermanic committee, which is now taking evidence on charges of the non-enforcement of the liquor law. The petition was finally referred to the committee on investigation.

School Children Burned to Death.

GREENDALE, West Indies, Nov. 13.—A school building here, in which 150 children were present, caught fire, and before anything could be done, the whole building was destroyed. Thirty-one children, including the teacher, have so far been taken out. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin, and two boys, who had been severely punished by the teacher and suspended from school, are believed to be the authors of the crime.

Left Until Spring.

St. John's, N. E., Nov. 13.—The steamer Neptune, which has been salvaging at the wreck of the Mariposa at Fortine bay, returned yesterday with a second cargo. The harbor where the wreck is located is frozen over. A diver who accompanied the Neptune says that the Mariposa's hull is practically unharmed, and that it will be possible to float her when navigation opens.

PARENTS' OPPOSITION

Overruled by Grace Shute In Her Eagerness to Wed Dr. Knight.

Police Attempted to Interfere In the Matter.

While They Were Scouring About the Pair Got Married.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 13.—The Lynn police yesterday stopped a runaway marriage, which, however, took place later on. The bridegroom is Dr. William H. Knight. He is about 32 years old. The bride is Grace Shute, the 18-year-old daughter of Hiram Shute of Cliffside.

Mr. Shute states that when he and his wife formed the Dr. Knight was paying more attention than they thought proper to their daughter, and that the girl was the willing recipient of those attentions, they discontinued employing him professionally, and forbade their daughter having further intercourse with him. Mr. Shute claims that the doctor obtained complete control over the girl by the use of drugs.

One week ago she disappeared from home, and her father communicated with the police, who set to work to trace her. Monday morning Officer McKenney called on Dr. Knight, and after a stormy interview succeeded in learning that she was staying with a relative of his first wife.

The officer went to the place and arrived about the same time as Knight himself, who made strenuous objections to the officer being allowed to see the girl alone, which, however, he was powerless to prevent.

On calling at the house yesterday the officer learned that Knight had taken the girl away Monday afternoon. He went to Knight's office and watched until he saw the physician come out of the house, and followed him to a house on Tremont street, from which he soon emerged.

Having the Girl With Him.

McKenney interviewed the pair and took them to the police station. An effort was made to obtain from Judge Berry a warrant against the girl for subornation, but as the judge was not in the girl was allowed to depart with Knight, as there was no charge on which they could be held at that time.

While they were at the station, Marshal Wells obtained from them a promise not to take further steps in regard to the marriage, but the couple were married at noon by Rev. Tillman B. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Knight, who has a lucrative practice in Lynn, claims that the girl's parents opposed him because he has tried to collect from them a sum of money which they owed him for medical attendance. The girl is very prepossessing, accomplished and intelligent.

NEGLECTED HIS STUDIES.

Captain Brewer Placed on "Athletic Probation" by Harvard's Faculty.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 13.—A great commotion was created at Harvard yesterday by the announcement that the faculty had requested Captain Brewer of the varsity football eleven to refrain from taking part in any football contest during the remainder of the season. In other words, the faculty has placed him on what is termed "athletic probation" for neglecting his studies.

CAPTAIN ARTHUR H. BREWER OF HARVARD.

This is the first time in the history of Harvard that such action has been taken by the faculty. There have been instances, however, where other athletes would have been suspended if they had not been captains of teams. The students generally expressed great indignation, and characterized the action of the faculty as another blow to football at Harvard.

Captain Brewer took the announcement good-naturedly. He will still play in practice, and do all he can to aid the men on the team. Edgar Wrightington will be field captain.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

His Friends Claim That Public Opinion Is Growing In Its Favor.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—At the closing meeting of the suffrage referendum campaign committee, Mrs. Ole Bull, chairman, said that the discussion over the so-called referendum had made a great many converts in Cambridge. Members present from other places made similar reports, and a general feeling of cheerfulness prevailed. The committee adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas the present returns from the so-called referendum indicate that we only need to convert about 18 per cent more of the male voters of Massachusetts in order to carry woman suffrage; and

Whereas public opinion in favor is growing rapidly, and grows faster the more the subject is discussed; therefore

Resolved, That we petition the legislature to submit to the voters a constitutional amendment giving full suffrage to women.

Resolved, That this referendum campaign committee now adjourn subject to the call of its chairman to reorganize as a constitutional amendment campaign committee whenever the legislature passes a joint resolution for a referendum to the voters.

A vote of thanks was also passed to all the newspapers that had advocated equal suffrage editorially and had opened their columns to its discussion.

As Anticipated.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Joseph Quincy was nominated for mayor last night by acclamation by the 248 delegates who attended the Democratic convention. Alderman Lee, in presenting the name of Mr. Quincy, said Mr. Quincy was eminently qualified to fill the position of chief magistrate; that he was honest and able, and that in nominating him the Democrats of this city honored themselves as well as Mr. Quincy. He would go before the people with no pledges or promises save in the interests of good government. The nomination was seconded by E. K. Tilden and R. T. Paine, Jr., after which Mr. Quincy was nominated by acclamation.

Against Lynching.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Nearly 3000 people attended a meeting in Faneuil hall last night to protest against the practice of lynching and burning negroes in southern states. The meeting was held under the auspices of the various colored societies of Boston and vicinity. The speeches were by both white and colored men, and were vigorously applauded. At the conclusion of the speeches a resolution was unanimously adopted condemning recent horrible outrages in the south.

A TOOL OF BARRETT'S

The Opinion Boston Police Have Concerning James S. Chaffee.

Stolen Property Amounting to $170,000 Unearthed.

Man Under Arrest Sticks to His First Story of Innocence.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Inspector Dugan's room looked as if he were holding an exhibition of wedding presents yesterday, for on the big table in the center and along the sides were about $30,000 worth of goods, which probably represents the result of several years' inducements stealing in the suburbs of this city 6 or 10 years ago.

It is now certain that these goods came from the burglaries which so puzzled the police at that time as one has been identified, and the thefts which were committed in the suburbs then all showed unmistakable evidence of being the work of the same hand.

The arrest of James Stevens Chaffee in this city by the police Monday, and the recovery of $20,000 worth of stolen plunder, were followed yesterday and last night by even more startling discoveries. In addition to the property recovered Monday, stocks and bonds to the extent of nearly $150,000 (par value) were brought to the inspectors' office.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Inspector Watts and Assistant Inspector Dugan accompanied Prisoner Chaffee to his home on Mount Vernon street, West Roxbury, for the purpose of unearthing more plunder, which Chaffee said was secreted in the cold-air box of the furnace in his cellar. His cellar was searched, but nothing was found.

The party went back to headquarters and were surprised to find Mrs. Chaffee awaiting their return. After some hesitation she informed Chief Watts that if he would bring her husband home again she would hand over the stocks and bonds. She said she had removed the box containing them from the cold-air box in the cellar. The police drove to the Chaffee house again and Mrs. Chaffee went to the back parlor and brought out the box under the stairs. It was taken to headquarters, where the contents were examined.

Quite a Collection.

There were found certificate No. 74 for 1000 shares of the O. K. Gold Mining company's stock, valued at $100 a share; certificates Nos. 55 and 56 for 20 shares each of the C. N. Nelson Lumber company of St. Paul, dated Oct. 25, 1881, value $1000 a share, and delinquent bond, No. 573, of the Central Iron and Steel, value $1000 a share. The Smith & Wesson revolvers were also found in the box, and among other things of value were 225 sheets of foreign postage stamps and a large number of United States stamps, some of which were valued as highly as $30 each. An agreement was found, signed by Mrs. William Barrett, by which she turned over all her husband's property to Chaffee.

Barrett is a notorious criminal, now serving a life sentence for murder. In this state, and Chaffee claimed when arrested Monday night that all the stuff which was found in his premises had been given to him by Barrett in return for his having spent a great deal of money in Barrett's defense at the time of the murder trial.

Important letters were also brought to light from the bottom of the box which shows that Chaffee did not operate with Barrett in his burglaries, by which, doubtless, the bulk of the property was obtained. He sticks to his story in the main as told by him Monday, and the police place considerable credence in it, excepting that part in which he stated he did not know the goods were stolen when he received them. One charge against Chaffee has accordingly been changed from that of breaking and entering to that of receiving stolen goods, while knowing them to have been stolen. The total amount of plunder by the police now reaches $170,000 in value.

Mrs. Ames, widow of the late Fred L. Ames of this city, called at the inspectors' office yesterday and identified a number of articles which were stolen from the Ames residence several years ago. She also recognized several articles which were stolen from the North Easton residence of the late ex-Governor Oliver Ames.

Mr. Kidder, of the banking firm of Kidder, Peabody & Co., the discovery of whose collection of postage stamps in Chaffee's possession also led to the latter's arrest, also called. He, too, recognized some of the goods which were stolen during a robbery at his Milton residence six years ago.

Inspector Joseph Dugan said last night: "I am convinced that Chaffee has not been concerned in any of the robberies and did not steal any of these goods, for, in my opinion, he entirely lacks the pluck and nerve to be a burglar of merit, and was never made for such work. I consider him nothing but a weak, deluded tool of Barrett's."

The police do not place much faith in the story circulated that Chaffee is a brother of William Barrett.

Turkish Officials Report Fresh Outrages on Armenians.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A Constantinople dispatch states that Bahri Pasha will be appointed to the command of the troops in the Zaitoun district. Bahri Pasha was formerly valif of Van, but was dismissed from that office in consequence of the representations made by Ambassador Curie that he was in good measure responsible for the outrages committed on the Armenians in that district.

That his removal was made against the inclination of the sultan is a matter of common knowledge, and his majesty took the earliest opportunity to show that he approved of his acts as valif. A day or so ago Bahri was decorated by the sultan for the good services he had rendered the government, and now comes the evidently well-founded report that he will be given an important command of troops nominally employed to protect Armenians.

Official Turkish Advice.

state that the Armenians of Zaitoun have, since capturing the battalion of Turkish troops and practically obtaining possession of the city, attacked the village of Tchoukourhissar, killed 35 Musulmans, pillaged a house at Dungeh and carried off the arms and cattle of the inhabitants of that neighborhood. The Armenians are also said to have assassinated the collector of customs of that part of the country.

The valif of Adana, a town situated some distance from Zaitoun and nearer the coast, telegraphs that 200 Armenians, disguised as Circassians, have attacked and plundered the Musulman villages of Zeitunheli and Nurl, killing a number of the inhabitants.

It is believed in some Armenian quarters here that the number of Armenians killed during the recent massacres may turn out to be nearer 15,000 than 10,000.

In spite of the bad financial condition of the government, which is now in arrears in the pay of the reserves already called out, it has been decided to summon more reserves for service. It is doubtful if the government's scheme can be effected, owing to scarcity of money, but the attempt will be made, owing to the continued demands of the powers that the porte restore order forthwith.

A Broad Challenge.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Peter Maher held a levee in the Sturtevant house yesterday afternoon. Maher's manager, J. J. Quinn, said: "Maher challenges any man in the world to fight for the championship, and he will fight for $5000 a side, in public or private, and he will go any place to do battle, South Africa not barred." Quinn says Corbett went to Maher and said he would ask him as a favor not to challenge him, he (Corbett) having retired. The Irish champion is but 20 years of age, and weighed 170 pounds on the night of the fight.
